A Delegation Uniting Guatemala and U.S. Men to end Gender Violence :

Challenging Toxic Masculinity in Guatemala and Everywhere: A Delegation for Men Against Gender Violence

SAVE THE DATE: June 11-18, 2017

Join our men-only delegation supporting gender equality in Guatemala. Raise awareness about violence against women and become part of the solution by exploring what all men can do to prevent gender violence. Gender-based violence is at epidemic levels in Guatemala. The country ranks second in killings of women worldwide.

The Delegation will meet with:

- Indigenous leaders
- Women human rights movement groups
- Women in congress & presidential staff
- White Ribbon Campaign graduates
- LGBTQI organizations

COST for bearing witness, organizing, and celebrating with us is US$1,000 per person. It includes in-country transportation, food, lodging, interpretation, and honorariums for our speakers, but not airfare. Round-trip fares LAX-Guatemala City are about $500-$600 per person.

PAYMENT: Reserve with a US$200 deposit which becomes non-refundable on May 11. The remainder is due May 31st.
